

RIDE 'EM COWBOY

Corfu's winding goat trails, rocky mountain tracks and deserted beach paths are ideal for exploring on horseback. Make a beeline for Trail Riders (www.trailriderscorfu.com), a British-run stables offering half- and full-day rides for all ages into the foothills of the mighty Pantokrater mountains. If you fancy galloping along a deserted beach with the wind in your hair, Dimitris horseriding (www.dimitriscorfu.gr), in the tiny beach resort of Avlaki, is for you. ### DO A WHEELIE

Discover Corfu by the backroads with The Corfu Mountain Bike Shop (www.mountainbikecorfu.gr). Based in the tiny village of Dassia for the past two decades, this enterprising company organises half- and full-day, family-friendly bike tours to discover the surrounding region. For a leisurely ride to discover the Ropa valley vineyards and sample their produce, try the coast to coast tour. But if you're seeking a more adventurous day out, opt for the boat and bike tour where you'll ride out of the bay where shipwrecked adventurer Odysseus met beautiful princess Nafsika in a traditional caique (Greek boat). This takes you to explore the rolling hills, unspoilt villages and sandy dunes of Mouse Island by bike, before cruising back to Dassia at sunset.

ANYONE FOR TEE?

OK, so you might not strictly class as it adventure, but golf fans will find it tough to resist Corfu's world-class golf club (www.corfugolfclub.com). Designed by Donald Harradine, a celebrated course designer, the island's most stunning course lies in the lush green Ropa valley, alongside the Nafsika River. Tree-lined fairways and tricky sand traps combine with several lakes and meandering streams to make it challenging for all levels. Younger children will love the bright coloured obstacles and fun challenges of the 18-hole mini golf course in Kavos (www.corfusanmarina.com).
